CLASS OF 1987

A Centennial Year

91st Annual Commencement

*"For I know the plans I have for you,"
declares the LORD, "plans to prosper
you and not to harm you, plans to give
you hope and a future."*

Jeremiah 29:11 NIV

91st Annual Commencement

*"For I know the plans I have for you,"
declares the LORD, "plans to prosper
you and not to harm you, plans to give
you hope and a future."*

Jeremiah 29:11 NIV

Welcome to the Commencement of the Centennial Class of 1987.

Today is a day of beginnings.

We have had the privilege of building into the lives of these very special young people for the past four years. Now we send them forth to minister for Jesus Christ in the many avenues where He will lead them.

One hundred years ago five godly men were led to found Cedarville College. They envisioned the need to train preachers and lay people for the work of God here and abroad. Today their purpose lives on as Cedarville begins its second century.

The hand of God has been on this institution. Cedarville has achieved a balance that is distinctive — quality academics in harmony with a strong spiritual emphasis. The heartbeat of every Christian school is what happens in Chapel. As the Chapel is the center of our campus, so God is central in all that transpires here.

It is our prayer that you might have the joy of knowing Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Consider what the Bible says: "For God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." "...for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...." "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." "Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God..."*

This is a day of beginnings. Our graduates are beginning a new phase of their lives... Cedarville College is beginning its second century... and you can begin your new life in Christ. Won't you consider the claims of Christ and receive Him today?

The text for this work is from Psalms 46 and 47; the music was commissioned by Cedarville College to commemorate its 100th year.

Commencement Address

Paul H. Dixon, Ed.D., D.D., LL.D.

*Hymn: Give to the Winds Your Fears
David L. Matson, Ph.D., Director

George J. Elvey

*Give to the winds your fears,
Hope and be undismayed;
God hears your sighs and counts your tears,
God shall lift up your head,
Through waves and clouds and storms
He gently clears the way;
Wait for His time, so shall the night
Soon end in joyous day.*

*Far, far above your thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully He the work has wrought
That caused your needless fear.
Leave to His sovereign will
To choose and to command:
With wonder filled, you then shall know
How wise, how strong His hand.*

David L. Matson, Ph.D., Director

*To Wisdom's quiet dwelling place
We come with eager hearts to trace
The silver which we know is there,
And hidden wealth beyond compare,
We ask that we who have His call,
Who know that Jesus paid it all,
May own a deeper love toward men,
For whom Christ died and rose again.*

*Chorus: Our paths have led to Cedarville,
Where we seek to do our Savior's will,
We must impart the living Word,
And rescue those who have not heard.
Let us who have been amply fed
Provide a dying world with bread;
Oh, let us be God's humble tool,
That He may use us and our school.*

Graduation with Honors

Students graduating with academic honors are wearing a gold cord. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.50 will be graduated "with honor"; one who earns a grade point average of 3.70 will be graduated "with high honor"; and one who earns a grade point average of 3.85 will be graduated "with highest honor." A student must be in residence at least two full years (90 quarter hours) in order to qualify for honors.

Centennial Medallion

The distinctive medallion presented to each graduate commemorates being a member of the centennial graduating class. The front of the medallion is a replica of the college seal while the reverse side is a replica of the centennial logo.

This same medallion is being presented to each member of the Class of 1937. Members of this class are present at the 1987 Commencement to celebrate fifty years since the date of their graduation.

The Academic Regalia

The colorful academic regalia dates from the Middle Ages when European universities took form. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. An intercollegiate commission was formed which established the following standard of uniformity for caps, gowns, and hoods.

The standard cap is mortarboard. The tassel color indicates the subject field.

Yellow – science, mathematics

Drab – commerce

Sage Green – physical education

Light Blue – education

Pink – music

Dark Brown – fine arts

White – arts, letters, languages, history

Apricot – nursing

Scarlet – religion

Dark Crimson – humanities

Gold – Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Education, Doctor of Theology,
Doctor of Arts (some of the doctors have large, metallic tassels)

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicates the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has a five-inch wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has a three-inch wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has a two-inch wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue velvet indicates the doctoral degrees. The dark brown velvet indicates the Master of Arts degree. White velvet indicates the Bachelor of Arts or the Master of Arts degree. Scarlet velvet indicates the Bachelor of Divinity degree or the Master of Divinity degree. Yellow indicates the Bachelor of Science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features: it is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown, and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color which symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Senior Class Song

"For Your Kingdom"

You gave us joy and laughter,
and spiritual eyes to see,
You gave us hope;
You gave us love
In friends and family.
But as we reflect on all these things,
Our grateful hearts bow quietly.
For You said in Your Word
"To whom much is given,
Much will be required."
My life is just a vapor;
It soon shall pass away.
Those things that seem important now
Won't last beyond today.
So no matter what You have for me,
How rich or how poor I might be,
I know the only success that I'll ever have
Will come in serving You.

In this place a hundred years
We've seen a faithful few.
We have a heritage of forefathers
Who fought to worship You.
We've heard about those fearless saints
Constrained by love to die.
And we vow in our hearts
To take up the cross,
And keep the fire burning,
And to penetrate this dark world with your light.

Chorus

And you have given us so much,
Now what do You require?
Your grace has brought us here;
We have just one desire:
Take our lives, O King,
This offering we bring,
And please use us for Your Kingdom.
